How it all started...

The Adult Day Care Program is located within the walls of Corinthians Retirement Community in Carrollton, Texas. This community has been a part of the growing senior population since 1999, beginning as an independent living community. While living independently still stands today, the community has implemented an all-inclusive approach making it a hassle free environment for seniors to enjoy retirement and focus on the next chapter in their lives. Corinthians also hosts an in-house home healthcare agency, Grace Home Health Care Inc., who carefully creates a custom package for an additional fee for every senior offering the best in individualized care within the comfort of their home. With all the great services Corinthians Retirement Community has to offer, the Adult Day Care Program is an excellent addition to provide continuous care for the population we serve.
